1/2. Promotion of a democratic and equitable international order

Recalling Human Rights Council resolution 8/5 of 18 June 2008, entitled “Promotion of a democratic and equitable international order”, and considering the vastness of the issues addressed by the Council in resolution 8/5 and the various opinions and interpretations expressed, the Advisory Committee will continue its deliberations on this matter at its next session, including by referring to the work that has been already done by the Sub-Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights and any other human rights mechanisms.

*15th meeting
14 August 2008*

1/3. Missing persons

The Human Rights Council Advisory Committee,

Recalling Human Rights Council resolution 7/28 of 28 March 2008, entitled “Missing persons”, in which the Council decided to hold a panel discussion on the question of missing persons at its ninth session and to invite experts of the International Committee of the Red Cross, delegates of Governments and non-governmental organizations as well as national human rights institutions and international organizations to participate therein, and requested the High Commissioner for Human Rights to prepare a summary of the panel’s deliberations with a view to subsequently charging the Advisory Committee, at the same session, with the preparation of a study on best practices in the matter,

Based on the preliminary discussions held by the Advisory Committee at its first session,

Noting the importance of designating a member of the Advisory Committee to follow closely the panel discussion and stressing that no financial resources will be required to that end,

Entrusts Mr. Latif Huseynov and Mr. Ansar Burney, who are to be involved in the preparation of the study, with the task of participating in the said panel and reporting back to the Advisory Committee at its next session, and recommends that the President of the Human Rights Council extend an invitation to Mr. Huseynov and Mr. Burney to participate in the panel discussion of the Council, to be held in September 2008.

*15th meeting
14 August 2008*

1/4. Integrating the human rights of women throughout the United Nations system

The Human Rights Council Advisory Committee,

Recalling Human Rights Council resolution 6/30, in which the Council requested the Advisory Committee to integrate regularly and systematically a gender perspective into the implementation of their mandates, including when examining the intersection of multiple forms of discrimination against women and to include in their reports information on and qualitative analysis of human rights of women and girls,

Taking into account Council resolution 5/1, in which the Council emphasized that the advice of the Advisory Committee should be implementation-oriented,

1. Requests Mr. Ansar Burney, Ms. Chinsung Chung, Ms. Purificacion Quisumbing, Mr. Shigeki Sakamoto and Ms. Mona Zulficar to prepare for the next session of the Advisory Committee a set of draft guidelines on methods to operationalize gender mainstreaming, including action-oriented mechanisms that would facilitate the implementation of the Committee's mandates;
2. Recommends that the Human Rights Council authorize Mr. Burney, Ms. Chung, Ms. Quisumbing, Mr. Sakamoto and Ms. Zulficar to identify proposals for concrete action in specific areas, special procedures or further measures to enhance substantive gender equality throughout the United Nations system.

*15th meeting
14 August 2008*

1/5. Elimination of discrimination against persons affected by leprosy and their family members

The Human Rights Council Advisory Committee,

Recalling Human Rights Council resolution 8/13 of 18 June 2008, entitled “Elimination of discrimination against persons affected by leprosy and their family members”,

Based on the discussion held at the first session of the Advisory Committee,

Designates Shigeki Sakamoto to carry out the tasks of (a) following up on the activities of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, attending the meeting to be convened by the Office if extrabudgetary funding is available for an exchange of views among the relevant actors; (b) examining the reports to be transmitted by the Office regarding information on measures that Governments have taken to eliminate leprosy-related discrimination; and (c) formulating a draft set of principles and guidelines for the elimination of discrimination against persons affected by leprosy and their family members, for review by the Advisory Committee at its next session in January 2009 and for consideration by the Human Rights Council by September 2009.

*15th meeting
14 August 2008*

1/6. Hunger refugees: good offices of the Human Rights Council and the Secretary-General

1. The Human Rights Council Advisory Committee notes that at its first session, held from 4 to 15 August 2008, and in the context of the preliminary activities carried out under Human Rights Council resolution 7/14, the Advisory Committee acquainted itself with the drama of hunger refugees on several continents.
2. The Advisory Committee is concerned by the situation of hunger refugees, who place their lives in danger when they flee from their famine-hit countries, only to find themselves turned back by the countries of arrival even before their cases have been examined.
3. Other hunger refugees, rejected by neighbouring countries, run the risk of political persecution on account of their flight after they have been forcibly returned to their countries of origin.
4. The Advisory Committee therefore suggests that the Council and the Secretary-General make available their good offices so as to extend the right to non-refoulement to hunger refugees in such situations.

*15th meeting
14 August 2008*

1/7. Realization of the right to food in United Nations refugee camps

The Human Rights Council Advisory Committee,

Recalling that, during its first session, held in Geneva from 4 to 15 August 2008, the Advisory Committee established a drafting group on the right to food, in pursuance of Human Rights Council resolution 7/14, and that the drafting group is to prepare appropriate recommendations for the Advisory Committee session in January 2009,

Bearing in mind that the preliminary hearings held by the Advisory Committee and the drafting group during the first session revealed that large numbers of refugees and displaced persons in many camps run by the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees are seriously and continuously underfed,

Considering that, in some camps over 80 per cent of all children under 10 years of age suffer from anaemia and are incapable of following school programmes of the Office, for example,

Gravely concerned that this dramatic situation is principally due to the shortfall in voluntary contributions to the Office by States members of the United Nations,

Noting that the failure to assist persons suffering from undernourishment and hunger constitutes a violation of the right to food,

Bearing in mind the territorial and extraterritorial obligations of States to respect, protect and realize the right to food, as defined in article 11 of the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and interpreted in general comment No. 12 of the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights,

Suggests that the Council, at its next session, launch an urgent appeal to Member States to increase their voluntary contributions substantially and as soon as possible so as to enable the Office to discharge its mandate.

*15th meeting
14 August 2008*

1/8. Drafting group on the right to food: programme of work

1. Recalling Human Rights Council resolution 7/14, in which the Council requested the Human Rights Council Advisory Committee to consider potential recommendations for approval by the Council on possible further measures to enhance the realization of the right to food, bearing in mind the priority importance of promoting the implementation of existing standards, the Advisory Committee, at its first session, held from 4 to 15 August 2008, conducted a discussion on the issue of the right to food and established a drafting group consisting of experts from each regional group: Mr. José Antonio Bengoa Cabello, Ms. Chung Chinsung, Mr. Latif Huseynov, Mr. Jean Ziegler and Ms. Mona Zulficar. In the course of its work, the drafting group held meetings and hearings with representatives of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development and the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees.

2. The drafting group proposes that the structure of its report to the Council be as follows:

- (a) The right to food and the current food crisis:
 - (i) The current food crisis:
 - Increase in food prices
 - Increase in poverty
 - (ii) Causes, inter alia:
 - Speculation
 - The conversion of food into biofuel
 - Agricultural export subsidies
 - Rising oil prices
 - The increase in demand for food
 - Financial measures made by certain international financial agencies (such as the International Monetary Fund)
 - (iii) Consequences:
 - Countries in danger
 - Hunger refugees
 - Hunger in refugee camps
 - The negative impact on the situation of peasants
- (b) State obligations;
- (c) Recommendations on measures.

3. The drafting group deems necessary that two further related studies be undertaken, and recommends that the Council entrust it with the task of preparing these studies, namely:
 - (a) Current food crisis, the right to food and hunger refugees: definition and situation;
 - (b) Current food crisis, the right to food and the rights of peasants.
4. The drafting group proposes the following timetable for its work:
 - (a) The drafting group shall work during the period between August and December 2008 to draft the above-mentioned report;
 - (b) The drafting group proposes holding a meeting of its members to review the draft report during the two days prior to the next session of the Advisory Committee, scheduled to be held in January 2009;
 - (c) The Advisory Committee shall, at the above-mentioned session, consider the draft report submitted by the drafting group on the right to food.
5. The Advisory Committee recommends that the Council, at its next session, to approve the preparation of the studies on hunger refugees and the rights of peasants, as recommended in paragraph 3 above, so that the Advisory Committee may subsequently appoint experts to conduct such studies and determine the timetable for their realization.
6. The Advisory Committee also recommends that the Council allocate the resources necessary to cover the drafting group meeting, to be held two days prior to the next session of the Advisory Committee.

*15th meeting
14 August 2008*

1/9. Official summary records

At its 16th plenary meeting, held on 15 August 2008, the Advisory Committee, taking into account the experiences gathered at its session, recommended that the Human Rights Council request the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to take the necessary steps to provide official summary records of all plenary meetings held by its Advisory Committee. It also recommended that webcasting be made available to it to enhance access to its proceedings by the public at large.

*16th meeting
15 August 2008*

1/10. Publication of studies completed by the Sub-Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights

The Human Rights Council Advisory Committee,

Noting the clear public interest on the part of States, civil society and the academic community in the provision of access to the wealth of varied analytical and theoretical knowledge built up by the Sub-Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights,

Recommends that the Human Rights Council authorize that all reports and working papers that have been completed and submitted to the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights pursuant to the resolutions and decisions of the Sub-Commission at its fifty-eighth session be issued as United Nations documents and be sent to the Council.

*16th meeting
15 August 2008*

1/11. New bodies established by the Human Rights Council

At its 16th plenary meeting, held on 15 August 2008, the Advisory Committee designated Committee members Mr. José Bengoa and Ms. Purificacion Valera Quisumbing to follow the work of the Social Forum and to brief the Committee, at its next session in January 2009, on issues of relevance to the work of the Committee. The Advisory Committee also designated the members Ms. Mona Zulficar and Mr. Miguel Alfonso Martinez to follow the work of the forum on minority issues and the expert mechanism on the rights of indigenous peoples, respectively, and to brief the Committee at its next session on issues of relevance to its work.

*16th meeting
15 August 2008*

1/12. The right of peoples to self-determination

The Human Rights Council Advisory Committee,

Recalling Human Rights Council resolution 5/1, section III, paragraph 77, in which the Council stated that the Advisory Committee may make research proposals within the scope of the work set out by the Council,

Bearing in mind General Assembly resolution 62/144 of 18 December 2007 on the universal realization of the right of peoples to self-determination, in which the Assembly requested the Council to continue to give special attention to the violation of human rights, especially the right to self-determination,

Bearing in mind also the different points of view expressed by a large number of participants on the various and complex issues relating to the content and realization of the right of all peoples, including indigenous peoples, to self-determination.

Will consider this matter only if the Human Rights Council addresses a request regarding this matter to the Advisory Committee.

*16th meeting
15 August 2008*

1/13. Sub-Commission studies

1. The President of the Human Rights Council, at the inauguration of the first session of the Human Rights Council Advisory Committee, stated that the Sub-Commission had left behind a substantial body of studies of varying status: some were considered finished by the experts of the Sub-Commission, while others were considered to be “work in progress” at the time that body ceased to exist in 2006. He added that all of these studies had been incorporated in the final report of the Sub-Commission transmitted to the Council in 2006. The Council did not address the matter in the context of the adoption of the resolution 5/1 and therefore, the status of those studies or papers which were listed therein but not acted upon by the Council remained unclear. The President of the Council concluded that the suggestions of the Advisory Committee could be of great value in determining how the legacy of its predecessor body, the Sub-Commission, should be addressed by the Council.

2. On the same occasion, the Acting High Commissioner for Human Rights stated to the Committee members that it was now in their hands, as members of this new human rights body, to propose to the Council any other pending studies and mandates of the Sub-Commission that should be concluded or completed in the course of the Committee’s future work.

3. In the light of the above statements, and bearing in mind paragraph 77 of the annex to Council resolution 5/1, the Advisory Committee suggests that the Council examine and eventually take the decisions it may consider fit for a possible follow-up to all studies commissioned by the Sub-Commission now pending a decision from the Council (see annex), in connection with, inter alia, the following studies:

(a) Discrimination in the criminal justice system;

(b) Corruption and its impact on the full enjoyment of human rights;

(c) Discrimination based on work and descent;

(d) The role of States in the guarantee of human rights with reference to the activities of transnational corporations and other business enterprises.

4. The Advisory Committee’s membership includes experts with recognized knowledge on matters dealt with in the studies included in the annex to the present text.

22. According to the adopted modalities, the order of statements during discussions would be as follows: members of the Advisory Committee, who may speak at any time; observers for intergovernmental organizations, national human rights institutions and non-governmental organizations; then Government observers.

23. The Advisory Committee also accepted the recommendation of the Bureau on the permitted duration and frequency of statements. Members of the Advisory Committee would be entitled to make one or more statements of 10 minutes maximum for each item or sub-item. It was agreed that Advisory Committee members taking the floor on procedural matters should be as brief as possible and in no case should their statements exceed two minutes.

24. Following the practice in other bodies of the United Nations, special rapporteurs and authors of working papers and the relevant representatives of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) would be given the floor at the beginning of each relevant agenda item or sub-item for the introduction of their reports. The special rapporteur and other experts entrusted with the preparation of any such reports or working papers could speak for a maximum of 20 minutes, to be divided between the introduction of the report and concluding remarks. An interactive discussion with other experts and observers would follow the oral introduction of the report.
25. Observers for non-governmental organizations would be limited to one statement of seven minutes for each item or sub-item. With regard to joint statements by non-governmental organizations, the following timing was agreed upon: for 1 or 2 non-governmental organizations, 7 minutes; for 3 to 5 non-governmental organizations, 10 minutes; for 6 to 10 non-governmental organizations, 12 minutes; and for more than 10 non-governmental organizations, 15 minutes. It was also agreed that statements by Government observers, under any agenda item or sub-item, should not address the human rights situation in countries other than their own. Statements in exercise of that right should be limited to three minutes for the first statement and two minutes for the second, normally to be exercised at the end of the general debate on any particular agenda item.
27. The Chairperson called on all participants to avoid personal attacks and non-parliamentary language that might bring into question the character and integrity of any other participant.
28. It was also agreed that the list of speakers would be opened at the beginning of the session for all participants to register to speak on any agenda item or sub-item. If the list of speakers is not exhausted during a particular meeting, the remaining speakers would be given the floor, in the same order, as the first speakers at the next meeting. The closure of the list of speakers on any particular item or sub-item would be announced by the Chairperson in good time as the work proceeded, normally at the beginning of the consideration of that agenda item or sub-item.
29. It was further agreed that, if there were no more speakers on an agenda item or sub-item at a particular meeting, the Advisory Committee would take up the next item or sub-item on its calendar without closing the discussion on the preceding item or sub-item, if deemed necessary.
30. It was agreed that, in order to respect editorial and other requirements, draft recommendations and suggestions should, as a general rule, be submitted at least three working days before the date on which they were scheduled to be considered for a decision. The deadlines for the submission of draft recommendations would be set by the Chairperson in consultation with the Bureau and announced sufficiently in advance.
