SESSION 3: CONCRETE CASES OF VIOLATIONS OF PEASANTS' RIGHTS

OBJECTIVES OF SESSION 3

After the first two individual and self-training sessions, we now enter the interactive part of the training. During this session, the participants will make a presentation on cases of violations of their rights in their countries/regions. They will later collectively identify the rights that have been violated.

METHODOLOGY

Division into working groups (4-5 persons maximum). The participants, after having presented the cases, will collectively discuss each one with the objective of identifying the rights of the UNDROP affected by the violations in each case. After these presentations and discussions, they return to the plenary to present the different cases and to discuss them in the whole group.

GUIDING QUESTIONS

What problems do you encounter in your daily life? What rights have been violated? Who has carried out these violations? How did this happen? What are you doing about it?
